DETAILED ACTION

Notice to Applicant

1. This communication is in response to the amendment after final filed 22 July 2009.

Claims 1-50 have been previously cancelled. Claims 51-52 are pending.

Claim Objections

2. The objection to claim 51 is hereby withdrawn due to the amendment filed 22 July 2009.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. The rejection of claims 51-52 under 35 U.S.C. §101 is hereby withdrawn due to the amendment filed 22 July 2009.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The rejection of claim 52 under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph is hereby withdrawn due to the amendment filed 22 July 2009.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 51-52 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 51-52 are directed to a method for identifying high-risk members by analyzing the insurance claims of a group of members, assigning a relative risk value to each member, forming a subset of members whose relative risk value is above a threshold, and assigning to each subset member a number representing a total number of intervenability factors present in the member's claim data and then ranking the subset members based upon the relative risk value and the number of intervenability factors calculated for each member.

The closest prior art of record, Lash., U.S. Patent Application Publication Number 2001/0020229 A1, discloses calculating the probability of a member becoming a high-risk member by analyzing the member's insurance claim variables and applying weighted values, however does not disclose or fairly suggest counting the number of variables identified in each member's claim data and assigning this number to the group member; nor does it disclose ranking the subset members based upon the relative risk value and the number of intervenability factors calculated for each member.

6. Any comments considered necessary by Applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement for Reasons for Allowance."
